

Of a Sinless Life

Romans 6:1-23, 7:1-25

Speaking on sin, Sha'ul writes that we must not sin; however we are taught by well meaning teachers who have obtained their counsel from pastors of bygone days that for us humans to be able to live a sinless life is impossibility.

Is it really impossible? If it was wouldn't what Sha'ul taught us and what Yahusha taught us all be in vain? We know through these writings that the Commandments were to let us know what sin was, and by knowledge through the Tanakh we became aware of what part of our life was indulging in sin. That the commandments pointed out to us what sin was, and in that sense was only good for us while we yet lived in these mortal bodies without a Messiah, that sacrifice of animals was the propitiation for sin, and covered up our sin, but it did not blot out our sin, it merely hid it like the animal hides hid the nakedness of Awdawm and Chavah. What then did Yahusha do for us as humans? What exactly was the purpose of His death? And how do we apply it to our lives today? That is what we want to know as followers of Yahusha, First of all let us examine the words of Yahusha, did He ever teach us that we were human and doomed to a life of sin? For if Yahusha taught that we could not help but sin then surely this would be a good foundation for our belief that surely we are unable to control ourselves as humans and keep from sinning. When you examine the writings and sayings of Yahusha you will find quite the contrary that He never taught that we can go ahead and sin. He didn't teach that forgiveness of sins is a continuous thing. Yahusha never taught us to bow down to the desires of these bodies because He was giving us a way of escape for our weaknesses. The things he did command while He was yet alive were to "Go and sin NO MORE!" Mishpocha no more means "never again".

Righteousness is our ultimate goal, holiness is our ultimate goal, but to continue in sin is not our goal, on the contrary we are to sin no more. There are some who would tell you that we cannot keep from sinning, The scripture says that there is none perfect, and if that is so then I have to ask you if the disciples were sinners also? If the disciples continued to sin would the Ruach have filled them so much that the people would be healed by Kefa's (Peter) shadow falling on them?. I tell you Kefa's shadow could do nothing it was rather the emanating Ruach from his Mishkan (Temporary temple) that healed the sick and afflicted. In these mortal bodies, if we continue to walk without the forgiveness of our sin we cannot walk in righteousness, and in that sense there are none righteous that have no salvation through Yahusha Ha Moshiach, however I am of a certain belief that if we strive to understand what it is that Yahusha brought us through the sacrifice of His flesh and blood, we will understand the whole mystery of the Gospel of Yahusha. What is it about this teaching that has been made hard for people of Yahuah to understand?

What is so impossible about living a life without sin? How is it that we put such a impossible constraint on something that should be the desire of every follower of Yahuah, after all isn't the fulfillment of following Yahusha's teachings that we should seek the kingdom of Yahuah? What exactly does that mean? Does it mean to seek after a dimension that we do not live in? The Kingdom of Yahuah is the place where we will all live for all eternity, and the hardship that has been placed on us through the perspective of living a life that finds becoming sinless impossible makes our belief null and void, in that it teaches us that we are forgiven, but then teaches us that we are doomed to sin, over and over again. I say to you that we must investigate who stands to gain by your living a sinful life? Why would anyone perpetrate such a thing as to teach thousands, millions of humans that living a life without sin is impossible? What would this individual stand to gain by humans "Choosing to sin under a big disillusionment?" Let's go back in time to the Garden of Eden, Here we have two humans who were in the flesh, the same as you and I, with one exception, while yet in their mortal bodies death had not entered their existence or environment, so therefore they inhabited a human body that would have lived forever, had they did one thing, obeyed Yahuah. See now we have a place to start our investigation to see where this sin thing began, and we do know and attest to the fact that all of the things in the “Bible” happened for us upon whom the ends of the world are to come. Let’s see now what happened, One commandment....”Don’t touch that tree....” One disobedience to Yahuah and now man is steeped in sin, as we see in the following chapters throughout the Book of Yahuah. The result of disobedience to the creator is to suffer the consequences of disobedience, that being sin, which eventually brings about death. We were told we were warned, but we did not listen and apply what the Father had instructed us. In order to fully understand this let us look at the players in this misfortune of humanity, we have Awdawm who “walked with Yahuah.” in a fleshly body, and his wife Chavah, and one more character if you will, satan. What did satan have to gain by tempting Chavah? Satan wanted mankind to disobey Yahuah by choice, how do we know this? Read the book of Iyov (Job) 1:1 here we find a man who was blameless, a man without sin according to Yahuah's word, this man shunned evil, turned away from it. Iyov had seven sons, and three girls, a total of ten children, seven of which were boys.

Being a blessed man, Yahuah asked the adversary what he thought of His servant Iyov, how he was a good man and shunned evil? Ha satan’s answer was, How can he help but bless you, you give to him, and bless him, but if you take everything away from him he will curse you. See satan hates it when you are a good person and fear Yahuah, and choose to follow Him from the goodness of your own heart, willingly and full of obedience, this is more than satan can do, he cannot serve Yahuah, he thinks himself better than Yahuah, and wishes for all creation to think of themselves higher than Yahuah as well, to join his hatred towards Yahuah.

What did satan have to gain by tempting Yahusha (Jesus)? The Adversary wished to cause Yahusha to turn on Yahuah, his hopes were to turn the very son of Yahuah against His Father, and show how his power of persuasion was greater than the power of Yahuah. How did this come out to play in the scheme of things for all humanity? If we believe in the forgiveness of sins, and then after we gained such enlightenment begin to walk out in our daily lives what we believe then we would begin to understand the roots of our existence, and the very meaning of why Yahuah created us in the first place. Yahuah has more trust in His creation than His creation has in Him, which is understandable since we are not the creator. Why did Yahuah want mankind to choose to not to eat of that tree of the knowledge of good and evil? Our choice is very important, we are commanded to obey, however we are given the option to not obey, what is unique about us humans is that we have a free will that can choose to serve Yahuah. For us to discover this is the beginning of wisdom of the universe, and the bringing of the end of the ages.

The “Plan of salvation” has very great meaning, and very easy to understand mechanics. It is simply this, that our Father in heaven wishes us to choose to be obedient not forced, not like robots, but to trust Him with everything concerning us. How do we begin to understand the end result of this would be? To be in these human bodies and choose to not sin, can a man choose not to sin? Sin is a result of disobedience that is true, but even worse than that it is the result of chosen disobedience. In other words we have the ability because of our free will to choose to do that which is right, or to do that which is wrong. We know what is right and what is wrong, but to turn from what is wrong is Heavenly minded to choose to do what is wrong is earthly minded, it is a matter of choosing life over death daily.

It is not as we have been taught, we have been taught otherwise. To serve Yahuah is something we just are naturally meant to do. If sin had that great of power then we would be still slaves to sin, and the cross of Yahusha would be of no effect on us. The reason this has been kept from you is two fold, one is because Yahuah’s fullness of time had to come yet for it to be revealed to you, and two, satan has done his best to keep you from finding out this truth. If you found out that you could live without sin, then this would mean the end of the age has come, and satan would know that he has but a little time left before our King Yahusha returns. Naturally it behooves satan to keep you from finding out all truth, to even hide the truth concerning who and what you are, if he is successful then he will live a longer life according to what he understands the truth to be, however his knowledge is limited to this dimension and he cannot know the mind of Yahuah, nor can it be revealed to him. Satan is in darkness and as such the things of the light are not for him to know, or understand. This is the very reason when Yahusha was on this planet that satan was unable to accurately find Yahusha and destroy Him at birth, though Yahusha did manage to make it to the cross by the evil hands of the Romans, this was all in the time allotted for it too happen according to prophecy. Satan is in darkness and as such the things of the light are not for him to know, or understand. The same reason he does not know when or how this will all happen, until he notices people of Yahuah beginning to live sinless lives. He will then look around and see this and know that he has only a little while according to prophecy.

Romans 6:12

“Therefore do not let sin rule in your mortal bodies, so that it makes you obey its desires; and do not offer any part of yourselves to sin as an instrument for wickedness.”

The therefore spoken of here is speaking of the previous paragraph, and the words contained in them. It is speaking of the fact that by accepting Yahusha's death you die with Him and arise a new creature, a sinless creation. It goes on to say offer yourselves up as living sacrifices to righteousness, to live after righteousness. Too much pagan influence has made its filthy way into the house of the El Ohiem. Don't you know it is time to clean out your temples and to repent of your deeds that you did out of ignorance due to the customs handed down by the traditions of your fathers, who by ignorance followed after the Harlot of Rome, whom adopted pagan rituals and rites that have no place in the temple of Yahuah? This I say to you that Yahuah's people need to find out who they are and begin to stand up against the evil forces of this planet before the plagues begin to happen, they need to begin to walk in a sinless lifestyle before the strong delusion comes, they need to surrender their lives over to the Father, and fall on their faces, and call a holy convocation before Yahuah. Yahuah's children need to become the unit that Yahuah has prophesied about that would manifest themselves in this final hour. Before a bride can marry her bridegroom she must have a relationship with Him and get to know Him and his customs and his ways, not force him to accept their way and their worship, and their god.(Read Ruth), however most people perform acts of kindness, or religiously go to Shabbat, and Sunday worship, but never have a true relationship with the creator of the universe. It is time we backed up and began to re-examine our walk and change things that do not please Yahuah. We must find a renewed relationship with Yahuah, and walk in righteousness, through Yahusha.

I teach these things as they come to me by the Ruach, and they are for your examination and commenting on. I post them for food for your thought, but ultimately it is your walk with Yahuah and not mine. Please do not get mad at the messenger.

Shalom in love
